	` '	uttable Presumptions
		etermining that the defendant should be detained, the Court also relied on the following rebuttable presumption	n(s) contained in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), which the court finds the defendant has not rebutted:
		a. That no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community because the Court finds that the crime involves:
		(A) A crime of violence; or
		(B) An offense for which the maximum penalty is life imprisonment or death; or
		(C) A controlled substance violation which has a maximum penalty of 10 years or more or
		(D) A felony after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior offenses described in (A) through (C) above, and the defendant has a prior conviction of one of the crimes mentioned in (A) through (C) above which is less than five years old and which was committed while the defendant was on pretrial release.
		Langer of the design of the d of the defendant as required and the safety of the community because the Court finds that there is probable cause to believe:
		(A) That the defendant has committed a controlled substance violation which has a maximum penalty of 10 years or more.
		(B) That the defendant has committed an offense under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c) (uses or carries a firearm during and in relation to any crime of violence, including a crime of violence, which provides for an enhanced punishment if committed by the use of a deadly or dangerous weapon or device).
		c. That the defendant has committed an offense after April 30, 2003, involving a minor victim under sections 1201, 1591, 2241, 2242, 2244(a)(1), 2245, 2251, 2251A, 2252(a)(1), 2252(a)(2), 2252(a)(3), 2252A(a)(1), 2252A(a)(2), 2252A(a)(3), 2252A(a)(4), 2260, 2421, 2422, 2423, or 2425 of Title 18.
D.	Additional suant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)(2)-(4), the Court directs that:
		defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections arate, to the extent practicable from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending app defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his counsel; and t, on order of a court of the United States, or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to a United States
